

Aide In Wasatch Retires Monday

HEBER CITY—William J. Bond, Wasatch County commissioner for the past 10 years, will retire from this post Monday. Elmo A. Jacobson (R) incumbent commissioner and Don L. Hickman (D) will be sworn in at 9 a.m. by Wayne C. Whitling, county clerk.

Mr. Bond has been actively engaged in public services for the past 48 years. He started his teaching career while still attending the Wasatch High School in Heber City.

At the age of 19, he was called on a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Texas and Oklahoma. Along with his proselyting, he taught school for three years in the mission field. On returning home, he taught school in Midway, Wasatch County, for a year.

He graduated from the Utah State Agricultural College and during World War I, enlisted and received the rank of sergeant in the 36th Balloon Company at Camp John Wise, Tex.

After his release from the Air Force, he re-entered the field of education. He was an instructor in woodwork at the University of Utah, taught in Richmond, Cache County; was a principal at Coalville, and Wasatch County High School, Heber City, and superintendent of schools at Duchesne for 13 years.

Mr. Bond has been a prominent farmer and dairyman all his life and has been active in many civic and church activities. He is a member of the Lions Club and the local Chamber of Commerce. He is the father of four sons and daughters.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

If as instructors we have supplied a thought, you may remember it or you may not. But if we have inspired you to think a thought for yourselves, we have indeed added to your stature. Schools have always been molds in which were cast the kind of life we wanted; therefore, if we are to retain freedom and democracy, each of us must help in every possible way to win this war, and then be equipped to aid in the establishment of a just and enduring peace.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Be courageous. History has repeated itself again and again. There have been many depressions in business. Always, America has emerged stronger and more prosperous. Be as brave as our ancestors have been. Have faith. Go forward!
